

Vibrating Neck Cushion

ABOUT THE EQUIPMENT : A comfortable crescent shaped massager for the neck and shoulders. Bead-filled, this vibrating cushion massages the neck from three sides. Vibration is highly stimulating to our proprioceptive sense. Vibrating products provide a lot of tactile input and deep pressure which can be calming or stimulating

WHERE FROM & COST: www.rompa.com, £24

IDEAS OF USE: Can be used at home or when travelling. Most affective when used lying on back. Remember to allow time for individuals to build up their tolerance to vibration

SAFE USAGE:

- This is not a toy, always use under supervision
- Keep away from water
- Ensure batteries are secure as these are a choking hazard
- Do not use for excessive periods of time
